

August 14, 2021 Visit

It was around 11:30 last night when I went to bed. I was hoping to sleep until 8 o'clock this morning. You know what they say about the best laid plans of mice and men going astray. It was about 2 AM when I was awakened by my name being called. As I opened my eyes and looked out the bedroom door, I could see a light shining in the other room. I knew that Michael must be standing in the Angelic gate in the office. I crawled out of bed and put my jeans on. As I rounded the corner coming out of the bedroom, I could see Michael standing in the gate with my dog Elle laying at his feet. Ellie was just lying there looking up at Michael and watching him. I was surprised that she wasn't demanding some kind of affection from Michael because she does from everyone else. As I approached, she turned her head and looked at me and then turned her attention back to Michael as he spoke.

Michael...I would speak with you. Blessed are the masters that stood with you in the Grand Formation. It was only through them that a semblance of sanity has taken place. Things in your world would be much worse than they are today.

Well in case you haven't been keeping up on current events, Covid is running wild through the United States and the rest of the world. Afghanistan is in utter chaos.

Michael... Look at it as you would a dirty floor. It may seem a mess, but as you sweep and clean you begin to make the mess smaller. Only when you sweep the mess into a pile can it be dealt with. Whether you see it or not, that's what is happening. Don't worry about it - that's not your concern. You and the Masters have greater work to do. You and the Masters are responsible for, and capable of changing the consciousness and that's your concern. Those that stood with you did what they could with the vibrations and energy they could bring about with the numbers they had. Blessed again are those who stood with you. I would speak to you about the upcoming Conference for next year and see if maybe the Masters will attend in greater numbers.

Well, let me tell you what's going on with next year's Conference. I have a contract that I signed with the hotel and as soon as I get my deposit paid they'll go ahead and set the date. I brought this up in the last newsletter hoping to get registration but I only got like six registrations. I am going to need a lot more. I'm sure we will get many more registrations as it gets closer to the conference which is OK except I need to pay for the deposit. Well I have a little more time before I have to pay the deposit and before I have to borrow the money to do it. I'll just see how it goes I'm sure the Masters will come through they usually do.

I'm negotiating with some of the speakers that I want at the next conference so we'll see how that goes once I get them nailed down, then I'll get that up on the webpage as to who's going to be there and what they're going to talk about.

Michael... You speak as though you know what you are doing. I know you are about to say this is not your first rodeo because you live in Texas. It's not that I read your mind as much as I know you and your sayings.

Yes, I do say that a lot. What I'm trying to say is that I've done this before and I think I know what I'm doing in order to have it work. I know what needs to be done and what money I have to come up with for the Conference be a success. However, it's not up to me it's up to the Masters and what they desire to have happen. Now you Angels give us stuff to do at the Conference and I look at it as though they are tools. You can give us the tools but if we don't use them then that's on us. Over the years I've come to see that the Masters really do care about changing the world and the consciousness of the world. I know it is a big job and we can't expect it to happen overnight with just those coming to the Conference, but I look at it like a foothold. Once we have that, we can start climbing and help others up also. They also know it's not an easy thing to do and some people become disillusioned because it's not happening fast enough. But the reason it's not having the effect we would like and moving along at a greater pace is because of the lack in the numbers required to bring about the needed vibrations to create change. I see my job as providing a place to hold the conference so we can do what is needed with sound systems and enough room to do the Grand Formation. Those of you in the Angelic realm provided the processes and I lead them in raising the vibrations with what you give me. We can only create what we have the Masters to create. I know even if we don't have great numbers we won't have great results, but we will create something that has not been made before and maybe, if we do it enough times, we be able to create it little by little.

Michael... This is wise of you to see this. However, your numbers will determine how long it takes. The masters are powerful all by themselves. However, when they meet in great numbers they create great results.

I have some things I want to talk with you about since this visit is taking place in the gate I have in my office. We have had only a few visits in my backyard gate. That said, if I go into my backyard gate I get eaten alive by chiggers. I've been thinking about taking it down because I don't use it. Any work that I do I do in the office gate has the same power as the one out in the yard. I just wanted to check with you and see if it was OK if I took it down.

Michael...If it does not serve you and it is unused, there is no need to keep it set up. You can take it down and you may do what you wish with the stones that make up the gate.

I was thinking because it was the first gate ever set up when I moved to Texas. Some of the Masters might want it. I don't think I should offer it for sale because it just doesn't feel right to me. I do however, want it go to a Master that is about the work we are up to. Now I am just thinking here. How about if I raffle it off at the Conference this coming June. Once again, I don't feel right selling tickets. So, what do you think about me giving each person that comes to the Conference a ticket and do a drawing at the end of the event? Besides, I am sure you angels will see the Master that is meant to have it.

Michael...If this is what you wish to do, it is a fair way to do it.

Cool. That is what I will do. Thanks for your input.

Michael...It is the first gate of Grace that was given to you. I can understand your concerns.

I just wanted to check. Now I wanted to talk with you about something else. I am offering a tuning fork class this coming October and registration isn't what I have expected. I haven't done a class for years and over this time, new forks have been given by you and I am not sure people know how to use them in conjunction with some of the older ones. This class is like tuning forks class 4.0. There is so much I have learned over the years since my earlier classes and I can pass that on now. I like to think of it as cramming for finals with the teacher giving you all the answers on the test. Don't forget, I am a hoot when I teach and make it fun. I do this because if it is fun to learn, to do, and people remember it. It also will give them the confidence to use the forks. Well, there is still time for registration and a few more spaces are available. register here

Michael...This is wise of you to offer the class, for it is better for people using the forks to know what they are and how to make use of them. It will be to the benefit to all. Now let me speak to you about what is to come. Your kind is coming up on the Novus Invicta process in December. I will come to you with a process to be done along with what you have been doing before. With what I will give you, it will set the new year at a greater level. Yet that is for another time when we speak. My time is done for now. We will speak again. Do not concern yourself with what is going on in your world. Be about the work your kind and ours is about. Be at peace and teach only love.

As soon as Michael said that, Ellie sat up like she knew something was going to happen. She backed up as the light grew in intensity and stood next to me. Ellie and I watched as Michael disappeared into the light, then as it faded, and he was gone.

I am going back to bed and write this visit in the morning.

Bless Your Hearts,
Joe
