

April 8th, 2014 Angel Visit

I was awakened at 7:30 in the morning by my name being called. Angels are afoot again, I thought to myself. I got out of bed, got dressed and headed into the kitchen for my first cup of coffee. It seemed a little odd to me that Michael wasn't standing in the gate waiting for me. I guess in a way I was kind of grateful for that because it gave me enough time to get my coffee. I sipped my coffee as I headed into the office, took a seat and waited for what was next. It didn't take long before a light started to grow in the center of the Gate of Grace. As I sat and watched the light grow brighter, I wondered who would show up this time. I never know with these angels what it's going to look like. It didn't take very long before I could plainly see this visit was going to be with Michael. Once he was fully formed in the gate, I asked him, "What do I owe the honor of this visit?"

Michael... The time when you will gather in Utah is close upon you. We see that you are far from the number you will need for the work that is to be done.

Yes I know that and once again, it seems like people are going to wait till the last minute to register. There's no need to panic, people do this every year. However, if we don't have the numbers by June 1st, then it's time to panic. Besides that, I want to talk to you about some things that are concerning me. I was watching television the other night and they got to talking about looking for a plane that is missing. The way that they're going about it is they're looking for wreckage floating on the ocean. However every time they think they found something, it turns out to be garbage. Then they said the unimaginable - that there is a garbage slick floating on the ocean as big as the state of Texas. Then the scary thing he said was that the way things are going, the oceans are going to start to die. He also said we probably won't see it in our lifetime, but our children will see the oceans die in their lifetime. He added that when the oceans die, so does every thing else and this once beautiful planet becomes a wasteland void of life.

Michael... Do you not see your consciousness and awareness growing? You are now aware and conscious of something you were not. You hold the sacred bowls that will be you in the grand formation. Is it any wonder your awareness is starting to grow? You will begin to see things that you have not seen before. Those that have done the seven names of God as you have given are raising the vibrations and opening the consciousness for this to happen.

Once again Michael, I fail to see this as a gift. Granted, I have been made aware of something I did not know. So what is it that I as one man can do to alter the course of what seems to be inevitable? I wouldn't even know where to begin.

Michael... You have been given where to begin. It is up to you to gather the numbers in the grand formation. You were told in order for healing to take place, one must first be aware of what is out. This holds true in all things whether it be your bodies or your planet. One cannot fix what is broken if they do not know it is broken. I tell you truly, the bringing together of 444 masters in the grand formation will bring about and awareness and raise the consciousness of everyone that walks this earth. I speak not only of the healing of the world you live on. I speak of healing the madness of your kind that has created a world of war, disease and the hatred of one another. There is much the masters can change as they stand in the grand formation. They will become one as the vibrational generator brings back to harmony that which is out of harmony. You should not trouble yourself about these things as you have other work to do. Call forth the number that you were given to stand in the grand formation with you and these things will take care of themselves.

Well that's a load off my mind, now all I have to do is to do is concern myself with the upcoming conference.

Michael... This is so. I see you have been busy preparing the things you will be taking to the conference.

Well I didn't want to wait till the last minute to get started on this. I want to be able to just pack up and go when the time comes to go to the conference. As you can see, I am in the process of making Gate of Grace sets and Tabernacles. Morgan has been helping me with the sacred oils to be sure that I have more than enough. I am also in the process of putting together an order for tuning forks so that I can have forks there rather than have to order them. I know we are about two months out, but there's a lot of work yet to be done in order to be ready for the conference.

Michael... It is good that you're getting ready to place an order for tuning forks, yet make sure that what you order will be able to supply all those that would desire the tuning forks. You have started making the water diamonds again which is wise for you to do. This year when the hotel serves water, make sure that there is a water diamond in the water people will be drinking. It's important that the water they drink is structured water, for it will raise the vibrations of their bodies.

I'm glad you told me that. I really didn't want to start making water diamonds again because there are other people that are selling them. I don't know why, but all of a sudden people started ordering them from me again. I tried to send them to someone else but they said no, they like mine. I didn't have enough made up to fill the orders so I had to make up a big batch. You know that's a really good idea to put the water diamonds in the water everyone will be drinking. I never thought of that. So now when I get to the hotel, I'll just have to find out what kind of water containers they use. There's a couple of new things that I'm going to be adding it to my product line this year that will be quite surprising.

Michael... That which you are speaking of each holds a vibrational harmonics of it's own. When the conference is done they may carry this harmonics with them. It is again wise that you will have these things at the conference with you.

I knew these things that have the vibration but I never thought about them picking up the vibration of the very conference itself. That is just too cool. I do have a question though, I want to ask about this. Given these things are going to be at the conference where we will be in the grand formation and raising our consciousness and awareness by 20%, will our consciousness and awareness grow by having these things with us?

Michael... Once your consciousness and awareness has been raised, these will not raise it further. However it will become clearer to each. The masters will come to find that problems in everyday life will drift away or will be solved easily.

That makes perfect sense to me because it's kind of like you don't need to be recharged all the time. What else do I need to know about the conference and what's going to happen?

Michael... This year when the wholeness Blessing is given, it will bring wholeness beyond what was given before. There will be many healings that will take place emotionally, mentally and physically. Those that received the wholeness blessing this year will know the power of the blessing. I know you already have people doing the Wholeness Blessing at the facilitator's training. It is wise that you do this with those that will be coming from out of the country as well as those that live here.

I thought it would be a good idea to offer the facilitator's training three days after the conference. Everyone's vibrations will be very high and I think it will make for a great training. Not only am I going to offer the facilitator's training the new people, but some of the people who missed the new stuff will be able to register also. I was going to send this out in the newsletter so that people would know that I'm offering the facilitator's training, but I will write it up in this visit. If people want to register, they can call me directly so that I will know the size of the room I will need to teach in.

Michael...I know you 're planning on giving the Blessing again this year as you have done in the past. Yet when you give it this time, most will have a profound experience as they have not had before. Be sure to have enough people to support you in this process. The blessing that you're going to be giving this year will even surprise and amaze you.

From what I can remember it's been pretty powerful in the past. I just can't imagine it being more powerful than it has been. But given the energy, vibrations and frequencies at this year's conference, I can see how it would take this blessing to a new level for everyone.

Michael... You still think that this conference is going to be like the ones you have had before. Nothing could be farther from the truth. Last year when you stood as one in the formation, much was accomplished as far as a trial run of the generator and it's full potential. This year when you stand as one in the formation with the numbers I have given you, you will generate a most powerful harmonic. Not one person will be the same at the end of this conference nor will be your world. I tell you truly, the number of people that witness the presence of our kind (Angels) will pale the number that have seen us when you teach the facilitator's training.

Well I know every time I've done the facilitator's training there have been people who saw Angels and the Shekinah. So I'm looking forward to seeing how many people actually do get to see the Angels at this year's conference. Now I see you guys all the time at the conferences, but it's really nice to know that others will begin to see you also. Speaking of the Shekinah, I still haven't found the one that will stand with me in my life as the Shekinah.

Michael... It is wise that you have waited and not filled your life with someone so that you would not have to live alone. You may still find yourself standing with the one that will be the Shekinah for you.

I hate to bring this up, but I think I've heard this before. And it's not like I haven't been looking, however the timing and the meeting just hasn't taken place. Or if it has, I guess I missed it. Well, I guess I'll just have to see what happens this year but after three years, I'm not that big of a hurry.

Michael... Our time is done for now. There is still much for you to do to prepare for your conference. Be about making that which you need to make ordering that which you need to order. You know as well as anyone the time for the conference will soon be upon you.

There were a few more things that I wanted to ask him about but when Michael is done he's done. When the visit is over the visit is over. The only thing left for me to do was just stand and watch Michael fold back into the light. No sooner did Michael leave, then the phone started ringing. I thought to myself well, it's time to get back to work.

Bless Your Heart,

Joe
