

August 19, 2019 Visit

After watching a movie, I went to bed around 11pm. I didn't have any problem falling asleep because my mind was quiet. I was having a very restful sleep until I heard my name called. Upon hearing my name, it took me back to the time when I was a kid and my mother would wake me up. I remember not wanting to get up and asking her to give me just five more minutes more of sleep. As it was with my mother, my request was denied by Michael.

Michael...Joe. Arise, for we have need to speak.

I opened my eyes to see Michael standing at the side of my bed. Ok I said, just give me time to get dressed and I will meet you in the gate. Without another word, he left the room and I proceeded to get dressed. Once I was dressed I headed out of the bedroom and into the kitchen. I didn't even need to turn the lights on because Michael's light was shining so brightly from the office, it filled the kitchen. I was still groggy, so I headed to the coffee machine and made myself a cup of coffee. Michael was just going to have to wait. Once my coffee was made I walked into the office and set it down on the packing table next to the entry. I didn't set it on my desk because I didn't think this visit was going to allow me to sit down in the desk chair. After my first big gulp of coffee, I looked at Michael and told him to go ahead, my mind was now working.

Michael... Blessed are you and the Masters. The work you have done at the conference has opened up more than you know. Each of the Masters now stands with an Angel to guide them in all things.

I must say, during the process when each Master received an Angel to stand with them, it was a totally awesome experience for me to see. Usually at the other events I can see hundreds and thousands of Angels up above the room, but this was the first time I witnessed Angels descending to be with people. It was interesting to see the Angels stand with the person and when the person was ready to receive the Angel, it's almost like they became one. Now there were some people who took some time to be ready and it was kind of funny because it looked like to me that the Angels were almost getting impatient. I saw everyone getting their personal Angel and I've talked with some people about the experience. Some people saw their Angel and others didn't. However, I know everyone got an angel.

Michael... This is so. Those that were unable to see their angels is because they are not accustomed to the vibrations of the Angels. They will in time become used to those higher vibrations and will see their Angels. Yet I tell you truly, it is much easier for them to hear their Angels than it is to see them. All they need to do is to quiet their mind and listen. The Angels do speak.

Well I'm sure the Masters will be happy to hear this. As far as the conference went, I thought it was a very good conference and many people told me it was the best one ever. Some people told me before the conference that they thought maybe this was going to be the last one. I don't know about that being true because I didn't hear anything from you about that. However, I do have to say there is a lot of work involved in putting these on and it takes me a whole year. To tell you the truth, I don't know how many more of these I have left in me.

Michael... You have done well over the years with putting these on. It was much easier when you had someone to stand with you to help in this work. Yet all things considered, you have done well. I will only ask this of you one more time because of the importance of the upcoming conference. When it is finished, you can choose again to continue or pass it to someone else.

It is nice to know that I will not have to. I will see how this year goes and then decide. I have already picked a place. I figured we would go back to the Elegante in Dallas because they worked well last time and they know our needs. It was a great place to hold the conference last before since there is a major airport close by and the hotel has free shuttle to and from the airport. Another good thing about this hotel is that it offers a free breakfast and the room rate is cheaper. Last year it was $139 a night but this year it is only $109. I'm looking at the contract from the hotel and everything seems pretty good. I'm going to need to come up with a deposit for the hotel so I'll put up an early bird registration on the website. Once I get the deposit, I'll sign the contract and pay them. Another thing I like about the Dallas location is that it's pretty much in the middle of the country so it should be easy for people to get there.

Michael... You have chosen well.

I have to tell you, I appreciate you holding off so long before this visit. I needed time to get everything settled before we spoke again. Besides, I have some things I want to run by you.

Michael... Ask what you will.

The first thing is about what is going on with this world. What is it with this hate filled world? I would have thought after the work that we've done at the conference, that things would start to get a lot better. To me it just seems like things are getting crazier and crazier.

Michael... You are missing what is really happening. Remember your saying that love brings about more love while hate is a dark energy that consumes itself? You are in a time when the darkness is being brought into the light for all to see it for what it is. Hate is a powerful energy that brings about a result very quickly. Yet it is that result that is bringing about its own destruction. If you think about it, this hatefulness that has been going on isn't something new. It has been hiding in the shadow and now it's in the light. Now that it's in the light, it can be dealt with. This is the time for the Masters to keep the faith and hold love in their hearts. The amount of hate will soon begin to subside until it has died down to nothing. For the Masters that wish to hurry this process along it would be wise of them to go into the Da'ath and gather up the creative energy and bring about the vibrations of love.

Well, that makes sense to me. I need to ask you about the Da'ath process. Now I've taught the process on how to get into the Da'ath and some people can achieve this, but on the other hand, there are people who are having difficulty in doing this. I've talked with a couple of the Masters and I think we've come up with the solution. Given that the Da'ath is that hidden sphere of the Tree of Life, we've come up with an idea. Maybe what needs to happen is it might be a good idea to go through each of the spheres in the Tree of Life to get to the Da'ath. So as we see it, here's how it would work. Start with the first sphere with the 1 Keter and work down to the 10 Malkhut in the Tree of Life. This would gradually increase each person's vibration so that it should make it easier to enter the Da'ath.

Michael... This is wise. The vibrations of the Tree of Life are very powerful and are not easy to hold for very long. One must become used to them a little at a time. Once one can hold the vibration, it becomes familiar. They can move on to the next sphere. Now this is not to say that there are some people who have no problem going into the Da'ath without going through all of the other spheres of the Tree of Life. I tell you this to help those that are finding it difficult to reach the Da'ath.

I will write up a process to help people enter each sphere of the Tree of Life.

Michael... I have a little more to speak of before our time is done. Let us speak of the Angels that have joined the Masters. Each of the Masters will learn how to speak with their Angel over this coming year. They will play an important part of next year's conference. We will speak more of this when it is time.

Ok, I can wait. Now the only thing I have left is to ask you what you want me to do with the Da'ath oil. You told me that you would show me how to dispose of what I have left over.

Michael... This is so, yet things have changed. You made up more oil than you used at the conference. It was unforeseen that you would have as much as you do. You are going to need the oil to anoint the Masters at the upcoming conference. There will be people that will come this year that have not received the oil. They will need it after the conference. Keep it safe until the time comes to use it again.

Our time is done for now. We will speak again soon. For now, you need to make preparations for the conference. Be at peace and teach only love.

After he said that, he started folding back into the light that was all around him and then he was gone. I reached over for my coffee cup to take a drink. As I took a sip my mind filled with just one thought, COLD AGAIN. I started towards the microwave but decided to go back to bed, thinking I will write about our visit in the morning.

Bless your hearts,
Joe
