Michael... Arise oh child of light for it is time to speak again.

Upon hearing Michaels voice calling me, I woke up and opened my eyes to see him standing at the foot of my bed. His light filled the room so I could see well enough to get out of bed and grab my jeans. As I put them on he left the room, leaving it dark once more. I entered the bedroom and headed through the kitchen towards the office. By this time, Michael was already standing in the Gate of Grace and as I approached, he spoke again.

Michael... Blessed are all of the masters that stood with you in the grand formation and were anointed with the sacred oil of the Divine Masculine. Their vibrations have been raised to the highest frequency that allows it to be transferred to those around them.

I am glad you brought that up. As you know we didn't hit the number of 222 that you Angels called for. I bottled up the oils and have a lot left over, so what do I do with it? Just save it until next year? Offer it for sale now?

Michael... The Divine Light oil as you have come to call it, was a gift of the harmonics of the Divine Masculine for those that stood in the formation. The oil that was used at the conference absorbed the blessing of the Divine Masculine when the masters called in the blessing from the Metatron. For those that did not stand in the formation, they can still use this oil. True, it will not be as powerful as with those that did, yet it is still very powerful with the blessing of the Divine and may be used in the same way as those from the formation do. When they apply the Divine Light oil they will receive the gifts of the Divine Masculine blessing. When they carry this vibration they will also give off the Divine Masculine energy to others. It will not be as powerful as if they stood in the formation, yet it will be truly powerful on its own, both for those using it as well as those they come in contact with.

This is good to know. I will get the oil up on the webpage. Now let's talk about next years conference. I am waiting for proposals from a number of hotels. The location is Dallas, Texas, pretty much in the middle of the United States so everyone should find it pretty easy to get there. As soon as I get the bids in I will be able to pick a hotel. The really good thing is they have what is called DART, which stands for Dallas Area Rapid Transit and it only costs like $2.50 to get you from the airport to the hotel. Some of the hotels I'm looking at are right across the street from the DART station and the other ones are within walking distance. At another hotel they will come pick you up with their shuttle from the DART station. The dates that I am looking at are June 13, 14, 15 and 16. People can start arriving on the 12th. I am also going to do an early bird special this year to help getting a deposit for the hotel. However this year I'm only going to run the $200 dollar early bird special for as long as it takes to come up with the deposit. I figure if I find the hotel early and firm up the dates, people can start making plans to be there.

Michael... It is wise of you to start early. Anything that you can do in order to have 222 Masters standing in formation is helpful. Let us speak of the number. The angelic realm has asked you to bring about the number 222 Masters to stand in formation. This is not some random number that was just made. This is a sacred number that creates the harmonics of a vibrational frequency that opens the way for much to be created. As I told you before, there is only so much that we in the Angelic realm can do to affect your world. Your kind must realize that when we bind the vibration of your kind and ours it creates a harmonic that opens up the Universe from what is to what can be.

Our kind continues to give your kind an opportunity to change all of the things in your world that are not working. Over the past three years, your kind was given the opportunity to change your world three times. Each of these times the number we ask for fell short. True, those that gathered with you in the formation made a difference. yet the vibrations were not high enough to make the difference that could have been made. Once again with the coming together of the Metatron and the Shekinah, the Divine Masculine and the Divine Feminine joining in oneness creates an opportunity to change the world once more. As I have said, our kind is doing all we can to help your kind, yet many are called but few have answered. You have over 4000 masters that have been gathered and our kind call upon them to have 222 masters standing in the formation this coming year. I tell you truly, this opportunity will not come again.

I am doing what I can to get a place that will work. I'm expecting proposals from hotels by this coming weekend. So once I get those I can go over what they're offering, how much it's going to cost for rooms and everything else so I can get that up on the webpage.

Michael... You have much to do to make ready for the next conference. Return now to your slumber that you may be rested. We will speak again and until we do be at peace and teach only love.

In no time at all Michael folded back into the light and was gone. When he was gone I figured I would take his advice and go back to bed for a few hours. As I lay down on my bed, my last thought was about writing about this visit when I wake up.
