

June 2020 Visit

I went out on the back deck to check what the weather was like. As I walked out, I glanced down to the Koi pond to see how the waterfall was flowing. Sometimes I have to clean leaves out of the water filter and pump. The water was flowing just fine. I started scanning the backyard to see if any tree limbs came down in the storm last night. As I turned my attention to the right, I could see the gate and what was interesting was that someone was standing in it.

The first thing that came to my mind was angels are afoot. The particular angel that was afoot was Michael and it's about time. I came down off the deck and headed towards the gate. Well, it's about time you showed up. I've been waiting to talk with you. I would have thought you would've showed up long before this but then again, you've probably been very busy with all of the souls that are returning home.

Michael...It is true that a great many have come home to God. We are there to greet each soul that returns, yet you must remember we are also there to usher each soul to earth. Our kind is there with you when you are born and when you return home. There are many who have come home and there will be many more to come.

Oh well, that's just great, so I guess they're not going to get this virus thing handled on our end.

Michael... There are things in your world that are dangerous to your kind. When your kind comes in contact with these things there are serious repercussions. Some of these things will lead to sickness while others will lead to death. Such is the way of your world. Yet I tell you, do not despair for there is hope on the horizon. Scientists around the world are looking for a cure. Rest assured they will find one. In the meantime, take care of yourselves to be safe. Follow the instructions that are given to you by those that know how to be safe.

I can only speak for me. When I leave the house, before I go into a store, I make sure I have a mask on, hat and a long-sleeved shirt. I also have a bottle of hand sanitizer to use before I get into the car. When I get home, I take everything off, unpack all of the groceries throw, the plastic bags away and wash my hands. No one comes to visit me and I don't go visit anyone. I social distance just as they say. Now I can't know who has the virus, but I do know it only takes just one person to give it to somebody else. Now I know you angels have a lot of work for me to do and you're going to take care of me every chance you get, but I also know you can't protect me from being stupid.

Yes, this virus has caused a lot of problems including the hotel where we were going to hold the conference this year. They told me that they would not allow as many people as would be there in the Grand Ballroom so I had to cancel it, as I'm sure you know. All I could do is work with the hotel to get it postponed until June of next year. The thing that really upsets me is here I work all year long to put a conference together and then it gets canceled. I'm usually working really hard to get everything together to go to the conference but this year it ain't happening.

Michael...It was wise to postpone the conference. As you said holding the conference this year is not worth the risk of putting people in harm's way. Should you look on the bright side, now you have more time to get ready for the conference next year and your numbers will grow.

Well, given we won't be holding a conference this year ,I was thinking we could do a video chat on line.

Michael... Let me speak to you of this. There are a number of things that should be done. With everything going on in your world today it would be wise to raise the vibrations of the masters. You will need to sing the seven names of God along with I am, You are, We are one. Also, to help raise the vibrations of the masters, they will need to use one of the sacred oils. The oils that can be used are the Metatron oil ,the Shekinah oil, or even the Oneness oil.

When you begin, have each master anoint themselves with which ever oil they choose. Place the oil on the crown of the head. This will help raise the vibration of each one participating. I will give you something to teach later. When you have finished, you and the masters will send it out to the world.

Ok I can do that. Now I want to run something by you. I have been thinking about what is going on lately. As you know, there are protests going on, a virus killing people and I tend to think it is due to people being willfully unconscious. So here is where I want to go with this. Back a few years you told me if we the Masters could get 222 masters standing in the Grand Formation we could change the consciousness of the planet. We tried several times but we just couldn't pull the number together to have it happen. If we would have gotten the number it would have brought a quantum's step towards consciousness?

Michael...This is so. Had you reached the number and raised the vibrations to alter the consciousness of the planet, everything would not be as it is now. How many times have you heard from your leaders, "Well let's wait and see what happens." When there is a potential problem they don't take care of it, they wait and see what happens and then they have to try and fix it. It is much like your kind call busy work. They look like they are doing a lot yet nothing is really happening. They create problems to fix. If their consciousness was different they would look and say, "What is it we can create to make it better for everyone?" An example of this are the scientists that are working to cure the virus. They don't just stand on the sidelines and wonder what's going to happen, they come together and work together to create a vaccine and they are very close.

Well, here's what I'm getting at. We're going to have a conference next year we already know that. What I want to know is would it behoove us to have 222 masters standing in the formation?

Michael... Yes. You have to remember when you have that number standing in the Grand Formation there is a harmonics that is created vibrationally. Once you have created these harmonics it allows for an atmosphere that raises the level of consciousness. Your kind is moving towards a higher consciousness and if you have the number at your next conference it will even go higher.

I must say that's some exciting news and you can count on me to do whatever I can to get the number next year. However, you have to remember it's not just up to me it's up to the masters to come together and make this happen.

Michael...* Now that you are having the conference next year you have the time to gather the masters in that number. Our time is done for now. We will speak again soon. Be at peace and teach only love.

I watched the ball of light that he was standing in start to shrink and fold in on itself. In the next few minutes he was gone. Now I just hope when he said we will speak again soon it won't be months before he comes back again. It's time for me to end this so I can get it to Ken to put up on the webpage. In the meantime, everyone be safe, wear a mask, wash your hands and don't touch your face. And like Michael says, "Be at peace and teach only love."
