

June 2017 Visit

I woke up this morning with plans to write up a newsletter. As usual, I started my morning ritual by walking over to the coffee machine and making myself a nice, fresh cup of coffee. As soon as it was done I took it over to the ice box and got out the half-and-half to put in the coffee. As I poured the half-and-half into my cup, I heard a voice on my left saying it is time for us to speak. I glanced over and sure enough, Michael was standing in the gate of Grace in my office.

Michael... We have much to speak of. I have things I must teach you for your conference this year.

Well that's good. I have a lot I want to talk to you about too. So let's get started with what I have to say and the questions that I need answered. How about we start off with what I see as the big picture in the world today. I see a lot of leaders of different countries who really don't care about the people or their well-being. The only thing these leaders are concerned with is their own self-importance and the power they wield. It seems to me they're spending all of their time exerting their power and finding a way to get more, and as long as we're talking about more, let's talk about riches.

I just have to ask myself, when it comes to riches how much is enough? It's as though these leaders don't get it about being responsible for the people they're supposed to take care of. I think they have forgotten that as a leader, when you are put in a position of power you are there to serve the people, not to have the people serve you. This whole thing about the masculine energy has gotten totally out of hand.

Michael... This is the way of the masculine energy, it is not in balance or harmony with all that is around it. It is as that old saying of your kind, "Those who die with the most toys wins." The masculine defines itself by how much it has in riches and in power. This is the reason for your conference this year, to bring in the energy of the Divine masculine. The Divine masculine would bring about harmony. You were asked to gather 222 masters to stand in the Grand formation to bring in the energy of the Divine masculine.

I know that you've made that perfectly clear. However, given the way things are going I don't think that's going to happen. Now given that I really don't think we're going to have the numbers you asked for, my question is will this do any good? You told me we needed 222 people standing in the grand formation. If we don't have that are we going to be able to bring in the blessing of the Divine masculine?

Michael... Joe, you will be calling in the blessing of the Divine masculine, 222 masters standing with you in the Grand formation would bring about a mighty result. Should you have less, the energy of this Divine masculine blessing that you send out to the world will not be as strong. However I tell you truly, those that stand with you in the Grand formation will gather as much of the Divine masculine blessing as though there were 222 Masters. If you remember, you were told those that stand closest to the fire gather most of the warmth. The Divine masculine energy at the conference will enter the minds and hearts of those standing with you and cannot enter those that are not. When you send it out to the world it will be sucked up like water to a dry sponge. This is the water of compassion and unconditional love going out to the world. Yet for the most part, the sponge will still be dry without the 222 masters. Those that stand in the Grand formation will gather enough to take it out to all they come in contact with.

Maybe we won't have enough to change the entire world, but we can change the lives of all those around us. That still sounds like a good reason to be here. I know some people that could use some compassion and unconditional love in their lives. It is nice to know that we masters can change the lives of others just by being in their presence. I don't know how many people we will have there but I only hope we can get enough to make a big difference, even if we don't hit the 222 standing in the Grand formation.

Michael...* It is no longer in your hands. You will need to work with the number that will stand with you in the Grand formation. Let us speak of the Grand formation. In the order to bring in the blessing and the energy of the Divine masculine you will have to change the formation this year. I could tell you the way of that, however it would be confusing to you. Let me show you the way of how the formation will need to be set this year.

Michael started by creating a little Gate of Grace on the floor that was made out of light. The lines of the gate were made out of lines of white light. Next he started to add the colored lights that were placed in the Gate according to their color. Then he started making the Tree of Life connecting it to the Gate of Grace. Once all the lines were laid, he started adding all of the circles representing the Sefirot. This was kind of amazing because each of the circles showed up in the colors that they are represented by. Once he was finished and I looked at what was laid out on the floor, it looked pretty much like the formation we used last year. Michael then pointed to the last circle at the bottom of the Tree of Life. Once again he started drawing lines in light. He drew the six sides of the Metatron symbol and added a circle to each point of the Metatron symbol. When he finished he spoke to me of the placement of people.

Michael...* I will give you now the way to call in the blessing. That which I give you now will not be used until you are at the conference.

It took a little bit of time for me to get it down right and when I did Michael spoke again.

Michael... You have done all you can. The rest is up to the masters. Our time is done for now. Be at peace and teach only love.

I watched the formation that Michael created to teach the set it up fade away. Next I watched Michael fade into the light and once again he was gone. I guess there isn't anything left for me to say. EXCEPT. I will see you at the conference.

Bless Your Hearts
Joe