

October 29th Visit 2013

I had spent the last two days cutting brush in the back of the property and was having a cup of coffee on the back deck. One of the places that got cleared was in the trees where my big outside Gate of Grace was set up. There weren't any stones in place because when Gabby's mother left, she claimed all the stones as her own and took them with her. I hadn't set the yard gate back up because I had a 15 foot gate set up in my office. When I finished clearing out the brush in the area of the old gate, I thought it had set empty long enough. I went through the office and found almost all the stones I used to set up the very first gate. I must say it brought back many memories of the things that happened over the years there. I could feel the energy build and thought how different this was compared to the first time I set it up. I went back to the house feeling everything was as it should be.

Back to my coffee. As I sat there, I began to see what looked heat waves flowing up from the center of the Gate of Grace on the property. I looked at the waves wondering why I was seeing this. As I finished that thought, I saw a ball of light start to grow until it was about 15 feet in diameter. It was at this time I decided to head down from the deck to the gate. As I walked closer to the ball of light that was in the gate I could see a form. I recognized it as Michael in the ball of light. It was still amazing to see him about 15 feet tall, much taller than when he appears in the home office. "I see you have gotten taller since the last time I saw you," I said.

Michael... You know our kind will fill whatever space is open to us. You have done well to reset the Gate of Grace in your yard. The amount of grace here is far more than in your home.

How come I feel there is another reason for your coming other than to show me how tall you can get.

Michael... You will be teaching another group of Wholeness Blessing Facilitators with that which I have given you to show them how to make the blessing more effective.

Yes I am. It should really be something to have the new facilitators learn this.

Michael... The vibrations will be raised so the blessing will flow more easily from the giver to the receiver. But our kind sees this as not enough to produce that which the givers would like.

I don't know what you are talking about here because so far it has worked pretty well if you ask me. So are you telling me that I haven't given enough information to the people giving the Wholeness Blessing?

Michael... No I say this not. When you give others the blessing they may in turn give the Blessing. However there is something that was unforeseen with the flow of Wholeness. When the one giving the Blessing gives it to the person, there are times when the connection is not vibrationally correct. This is because the vibrations are not in harmony. The Wholeness Blessing still flows, yet not as well as it could. When the Wholeness oil is applied to the person receiving the blessing as well as the one giving, it will flow with the vibration freely. The one receiving it is tuned the same as the one giving it.

That sounds pretty cool. I can see what you are telling me, given both will be of the same vibration, any obstruction on a vibrational level will be gone so that the blessing is given free of anything that could get in the way. So I guess you are going to tell me how to make it.

Michael... I will do you one better than that. While you were gone our kind borrowed the oil that was needed. We made the Wholeness oil in our realm so nothing could interfere with the vibrations it would hold.

Michael raised his hand and he was holding something covered with a white cloth of light. He reach over with his other hand and uncovered what was in his hand. I saw a glass jar that he must have taken to put the oil in. I could see that the oil seemed to shimmer in the jar. There was a light coming out from the oil in the jar. He told me what it was made of and when I ran out, he would have to come and make more. Cool, I don't have to make a new oil.

Michael... To use this oil it will need to be used on both the giver and the receiver. Have the receiver place a drop on what you call their high heart. Have the giver place a drop in the palm of their hand and rub their palms together so the oil is on both hands. Have them do what you will be teaching and then pass on the Wholeness Blessing. You will see the difference with the blessing with and the oil together. This is one of the most sacred oils that you have. This oil will work as well as my oil (Michael's oil) for healing and pain relief.

Can anyone use this oil or is it just the facilitators?

Michael... Yes, anyone that knows the way of giving the Blessing can us this oil. Yet I tell you truly, the Blessing can be given without it. The oil is a way of better giving the Blessing.

That is good to know. I would hate to think this oil is the only way of giving the Blessing. Oh, what should I charge for the oil your kind makes? I have a good idea given what is in it. It would be better if you told me so I don't over charge or under charge.

Michael... The price that should be charged is the same as you would the I AM oil.

So then I will charge $85 for 2 ml bottle, but unlike the I AM, oil (you have to be gathered to use the I AM oil), this new oil can be used by anyone. Cool.

Michael... You will soon be teaching the Wholeness Blessing Training. You will also be going to Salt Lake to see where you will hold the conference as well as meet with those that will support the training.

Yes, this is true. I am also going to do a meet and greet with the people there and talk about how this all came to be. I just love to get a chance to meet a bunch of new people. It is one of the best parts of the work you have given me. Plus, I get to see a lot of people I already know once again. I have made lifelong friends at the very same kind of meetings. I never know who I will meet at these functions. I am also going to talk to some people that could be a part of a conference support team. That should be fun. I will also visit the hotel where we will be holding the conference. I would like to have a look at the room we will be using.

Michael... It will be wise of you to do this. You can also get some feedback from those about all that you do on your trip. You will learn much there.

I think you are right in what you are telling me. I hope it is all I envision it to be. Is there anything else you want to talk to me about?

Michael... I have given you that which you needed for now. Our time is done for now. Be at peace and teach only love.

As Michael folded back into the light, it reminded me of the first time I saw him in a Gate of Grace. As I thought of that, Michael and the light were gone.
